FROM THE COMMODORE : SLIPWAY 8

The slipway forum date is now rescheduled for Tuesday, 18 December at 6:00PM.

The forum was intended to be held on 10 December however that timing may not allow for a key document to be available. To be safe we have deferred the date to the 18 December. I apologise if this has caused you any inconvenience.

I look forward to seeing you there.

I welcome any feedback from all our members and email is best commodore@morningtonyc.net.au.
