Hi everyone!

I thought you might like to see a few photo's that Alan Jones sent me last Tuesday – it was an amazing sight to see & there were plenty of spectators for most of the day too!

Luckily Keith and his crew had managed to slip some of the boats on the previous Saturday....they are hoping to get the rest of the boats in this Thursday as (at the moment) it looks like the weather will be ok.

John Underwood has been busy organising a "Slipway sub committee" which he will chair with members being: Keith Ross, Greg Martin, Tim Melville and Simon Purcell. They will be looking at completing this project on the budget and in a timely manner with all options to be addressed to achieve the best outcome for MYC – don't hesitate to contact John if you have any questions regarding this.

The junior disco & our end of season function – the "Deck Party" are creeping up very quickly so if you have not yet booked please let me know. Please RSVP for both events by close of business this Friday for catering purposes as we have booked the "Aussie Catering Company" for the Deck Party & need to confirm numbers. We also have a band booked - "The Hoffmans Duo" so it will be a great night!

Presentation Day is on Sunday the 31st of May at 2pm – some of our members come down for a bar lunch beforehand so why not join them from 12.30pm.

That's all from the office this week, stay warm ...

Bye for now! Sarah Grant, Office Manger

Attn: Sailors

Your sailing committee is looking at the calendar for next year. We would love your ideas – please speak to your class captain or to myself, thank you,

Call-out for glass flagons!!!

Does anyone have any large 2L or more, empty glass Sherry or Port flagons (cleaned & with the labels removed please!)???

I'll be using them as part of the decorations for the "Deck Party". 20 all up would be great. Here's a pic of the type of thing I'm looking for...

if yes, please drop them in to the office - thank you!

"TAG Group" - who are they and what do they do.....?

I don't get down to the yard a lot midweek, but am always aware that on Thursday morning things seem to happen at MYC... jobs get done! No money gets spent, so committee does not really hear about it, nor do most members who are at work or school, so this group go unnoticed most of the time.

The Thursday Action Group (TAG) had a big day the week before last, leading up to slipping day. Most of the regulars were contributing; Keith Ross, Steve Bardsley, Graeme Vertigan, Russ Kemp, Max Wilson, Fred Lees, John Hart, Richard Nichols & Bob Armstrong. Also helping out with the cradle assembly were Laurie White and Tony Grundy. Three regular "TAGer's" absent this week were Dave Beeson, Mal Hill and Brian Adams.

They had a big crew this particular week following the usual email from Sarah advising the wish list. Usually there are about 7 or 8 depending on the commitment of team members to other home/domestic jobs etc.

On behalf of the MYC Committee and Members - THANK YOU!!!

Jacko, Rear Commodore

Current & potential on water volunteers – this is for you.....

Sandringham Yacht Club is delivering a volunteer race management training program during the winter months and offering it at no cost for clubs to attend.

ISAF, Yachting Australia and Yachting Victoria are very keen for yacht clubs and their race management teams to continuously improve their skill sets and to adopt techniques that are standardised around the world.

For the last 3 years SYC have delivered race management training courses for their volunteers & this year have decided to open the 5 training sessions to all yacht clubs around Port Phillip to ensure competitors of every level – club to international experience, have the very highest standard of race management practices possible.

The training will be a combination of classroom and practical example over the course in 5 sessions.

Sunday 7th June – 9am – 12pm (RHIB induction)
Sunday 21st Juen – 9am -12pm Start boat procedures
Thursday 16th July – 7pm-8pm ISAF policies
Sunday 30th August – 9am-12pm Mark laying/GPS
