26th Oct 11.30am Season's Opening Day

Hi Everyone,

It's great to see the club alive again after the sleepy winter & this glorious weather has certainly bought everyone out of hibernation!

The office phone has been hot all week thanks to those of you who have bought a ticket to our Opening Season Cocktail Party!

With around 80 people coming, Bev Donnellan catering, Happy Hour from 6.30pm – it's looking to be a fantastic evening & a great start to our 68th Sailing Season.

If anyone manages to get some photos of the night, please send them in for next week's Tattler (the sillier the better please!).

Opening Day is this Sunday starting at 11.30am – just come along and enjoy the celebrations.

We've had the Yoga on this morning, which is getting busier each week – the Harbour View Room has the perfect view to enjoy whilst getting into those poses!

Mornington Yacht Club Opening Day

Commodore Graeme Alexander & Flag Officers are pleased to invite All Members

To be present at the Opening of our 68th Sailing Season on:

Sun 26th October 2014
commencing at 11.30am

Lunch will follow the Opening Ceremony
(please bring a dish to share)
& you are then invited to board the official vessels for the sail past at 13:00 hours*

*if you wish to take part in the sail past at 13.00hrs please advise the office on: 5975 7001 so that a vessel can be allocated to you & for safety please wear shoes with light coloured non slip soles.

Yearbooks & Keytags

The new yearbooks and keytags were posted to you on Monday afternoon.

After the email that I sent out asking for help I had Julie Belle, Julia Barker, Dennis Gossan, John Schuurman and John Lynch busy upstairs sticking, folding & stuffing the envelopes for almost 4 hours!!

thank you!

Thank you so much for your help, it's a huge job which I'd still be doing if you hadn't come along!!!

If you haven't received yours by the end of the week can you let the office know because as from next Thursday the 30th of October you will need to show your keytag to the Rocks staff to receive member's prices over the bar.
