Hi everyone,

Tuesday 7th May 13

Thanks to some careful planning, favourable weather and a great deal of help crane day went according to the script. With the efforts of Alan Clark, Trevor Neate and Keith Ross the yard looks particularly well organized and tidy.

It has been a good sailing season and our thanks must go to all the on water race crew for the effort they have put in throughout the year. A special thanks to John Mills and Sheila Young on the water and Brodie Goozee and Col Martin in the tower for their tireless help in making it possible for us to race. The race office team led by Steve Bardsley have given us our results each week and Steve not only fine-tuned a great program for us but made the effort to rethink some of our long distance courses making for fairer and more interesting racing. As always our BBQ team have been there to keep us nourished on Thursdays and Saturdays. Participation is the key to the club's success and we are fortunate to have so many volunteers helping out in so many ways around the club.

We have been fortunate to have some great sponsors this season. Gazman, Red Rejuvenation and God's Kitchen supported our three twilight series. Total Animal Supplies sponsored the Sunday pursuit series and PIB stepped up for the Geelong destination race. Hopefully they will be back on board next season.

Our key tag participants are on the increase offering members a genuine 10% discount over a large range of products and services. Support is a two way street, so

On the weekend four of our juniors competed at Black Rock in the Icicle Youth Cup. In the optimist open fleet Nick Sharman had a convincing win. Sophie Jackson had a fifth with Ella Sharman and Denver James 10th and 11th respectively.

Along with Geomatic we ventured to town in Seduction to try our luck in the ORCV double handed race. It was a physically taxing day even in the light conditions, our best was not good enough and we finished mid field and unfortunately Geomatic fared no better. Maybe next time!!

Friday night at MYC is more popular than ever so come down and enjoy a meal from The Rocks or just have a chat and a drink at the bar.

Don't forget to get your footy tips in on time.

Hope to see you around the club,
Richard Nichols
