Santa Claus is coming to Town..... He will be arriving by boat (weather permitting) around 7 and will make his way up to the yacht club. So come and enjoy the smiles and enchantment with your family and friends.

Hi everyone

Well finally the weather has started to turn in our favour. With good conditions last Thursday we had the final race in the Harcourts Twilight Pursuit Series. The flying 15s finally got their day in the sun with Fly By Night leading home the fleet, Cinderella was second with Joint Venture third. The series winner was Morning Light with Joint Venture and Times R Tuff filling the placing's.

We had another pleasant day for the Navigators race in the Long Distant Series. Wild Goats again showed a clean set of heals and was never headed taking both line honours and the AMS result. Seduction was 2nd with Anna 3rd in Div. 1 AMS. Anna took the honours in the performance result from Seduction and Windsong. In Div. 2 YT2 was successful in the AMS result from Sanjuro. The positions were reversed in the PHC result. Div. 3 CBH had Big Day Out the winner with Times R Tuff 2nd and Magic Pudding 3rd. Times R Tuff won the performance handicap from Big Day Out and Messin About.

The Etchells and the Flying15s had three races in their club championship series. Race 5 of the etchell series was won by Quantum Leap from Basic Instinct and Easy Rider. Race 6 saw Basic Instinct first with Dark Joker and Twelve 87 filling the placings. Race 7 again went to Basic Instinct with Quantum Leap 2nd and Dark Joker 3rd.

The flying 15s had just two races which saw Under The Pump win both from Lean & Mean. Basic Instinct and Under The Pump lead their respective series.

On Sunday the optimists had two races in both their aggregate and club Championship series.

Race 9 of the Club Champs had Jonny Be Good sailed by John Faulkner win in the green fleet, Kate James was second in Optical Zoom with Racer X Jack Eickmeyer 3rd. Jonny Be Good also won race 10 again from Optical Zoom and Racer X, Jonny Be Good leads the series. Wave Wipper Sophie Jackson won race 9 in the open fleet from Ella Sharman in Sea Axe and Stephanie Lee in Optigon. Wave Wipper triumphed again in race 10 with Optigon 2nd and Denver James home 3rd in Eat My Waves. Jonny Be Good and Wave Wipper lead their series.

Race 9 green fleet aggregate was won by Optical Zoom from Jonny Be Good and Racer X. Race 10 went to Uno Jolie Spicer from Optimum Speed Christopher Coombs and Optical Zoom. Race 9 in the open fleet saw Honu 2 Noa Abrahams win from Opti Magic Courtney Lee with Wave Wipper 3rd. Imagine sailed by Imogen Weber won race 10 from Opti Magic and Honu 2. Jonny Be Good and Charlie Purcell lead their series.

Next Saturday Divs.1 2 & 3 has an aggregate and Vice Commodore's trophy race. The etchells and 15s have two of the same and also their class series. On Sunday the OTBs and optis have two trophy races including the Rear commodore's trophy.

This Thursday we have a special guest at the club in the form of Santa, So bring the kids along and join in the festive season. There will be live music on the deck and The Rocks will be serving great food or bring your own, It is the first race of The Good Guys twilight series. The Richies meat trays along with other prizes will be raffled. It looks like being a hot night but what better place to be than the MYC deck enjoying all that our club has to offer.

Hoping you can join us

MYC Yard

The Yard Team are reminding MYC members that all boats—big and small, must be removed from MYC by the 24th of December.

Members please note:

The Rocks kitchen will be closed on Boxing Day but MYC bar will be open.
The Rocks will be closed on New Years Day and will open at 6pm

Great Christmas gift idea.

Have you considered a Gift Voucher from MYC for a training course or the quartermaster store? Good idea.....

Contact the office for further details.
