Hi everyone

Last Thursday was the last race of the Good Guys Twilight Series. The wind arrived far too late for the early starters to have a ghost of a chance. Javelin was first home with Kiss 2nd and Geomatic 3rd. Javelin's win gave Mark the series on a count back from The Doctor with First Light third. Lightfoot grabbed the start to win The Rocks prize for the evening.

On Saturday the Martha Cove Destination race got underway in very light conditions. What little wind there was all but deserted the fleet as the tide came into play. Of the Div.1 & 2 fleet only four boats persevered with the conditions and were finally rewarded with a fresh breeze to comfortably make the finish well short of sunset. Windsong triumphed in both AMS and PHC from Seduction. Phoenix was third in AMS while Anna filled third position in PHC.

Division 3 fared much better with all but one boat finishing. In both the CBH and PHC the podium was the same. Magic Pudding took the honours from Just Another Toy and Beau Brummell.

Saturday's conditions took their toll on competitors from both MYC and BYC with only five boats lining up for the start of challenge. Not sure whether it counts but Seduction had the better of the BYC boats in the heavier conditions and hopefully regained the title for MYC.

Next Saturday Divs. 1 2 & 3 have an aggregate series race while the etchells and flying 15s have both aggregate and class series races. Our juniors are off to Daveys Bay for the Lidgett Cup. On Sunday we have the Harcourts social pursuit for all classes and divisions with a nice bottle of wine up for grabs courtesy of Harcourts.

Yet again we have 30degree day and a 15 knot breeze predicted for race one of the God's Kitchen Twilight Series, what better place could you be than MYC. There will be the BBQ operating as usual and after the race enjoy a meal from The Rocks or byo and relax in the Harbour View room. Bring along your friends and family and enjoy another great night at the club whether you are sailing or just socializing. Hope to see you there

If you win you will visit Fethiye, Gocek, Karacoeren, Kalkan, Kas, the Greek island of Kastelorrezo and Kekova before spending a night in a luxury hotel in Antalya.
