Hi everyone

Times R Tuff led the fleet home in last Thursday's Gods Kitchen Twilight Pursuit. Lucinda and Cocktail completed the podium. The closest starter was also won by Times R Tuff taking The Rocks prize for the evening. First Light leads the series from Kiss and Fly By Night.

The Saturday trophy race was won by Adios with Beau Brummell second and Anna third.

On Sunday Beau Brummell continued their recent good form winning the Harcourts Sunday Social Pursuit from Phoenix and Morning Light. With seven races decided in the series Anna leads from Morning Light and Beau Brummell.

The state optimist championships were held at the weekend with the normal large fleets. In the open division Sophie Jackson finished 13th Stephanie Lee was 35th Noa Abraham 43rd and Denver James 45th. In the intermediate fleet Holly Shepherd finished the series 18th with Courtney Lee 19th William McKenzie 24th and Spencer Ko 27th. Lachlan Weber won in the Green Fleet, Jack Eickmeyer was 4th Kate James 11th Sophie McKenzie 15th Jolei Spicer 23rd Jay James 31st Christopher Coombs 39th and James Jackson 44th. Well done to all our juniors and those results make the future look bright.

Sorry but I haven't been able to obtain results from the Marlay Point Overnight Race but we had some success with Seduction in the King Island race winning in AMS, second IRC and fifth PHC. It's the overnight race this coming Saturday at 1800hrs. The briefing is at 1715hrs. If you are seeking crew or looking to crew please contact the office or myself on 0418 500 130 and hopefully we can get as many boats and sailors on the water and enjoy some champagne sailing.

Light breeze, sunny around 23degrees is the recipe for a perfect Twilight sail. It is race 5 of the Gods Kitchen Twilight Pursuit Series and hopefully with these conditions we will have a big fleet on the water. Even if you aren't sailing come down the club and enjoy what MYC has to offer. There will be food available from The Rocks or bring your own and relax in our Harbour View room or just soak up the atmosphere on the deck. Don't forget to get your footy tips organized.

Hope to see you around the club
